Joan Garry Consulting

BECAUSE NONPROFITS ARE MESSY

Potential Topics for Keynote Speeches

- The Key Attributes of Thriving Nonprofits

- The Power, Responsibility and Joy of Nonprofit Leadership
  Broad, informative and inspiring, this topic creates a snapshot of what it takes to be an effective leader in the nonprofit sector and reminds participants of the privilege of service.

- You Are Not On Top of Anything: The Nonprofit Model of Shared Leadership
  For organizational leaders (board and staff), these remarks focus on what Garry sees as the nonprofit sector's power structure – a model of shared power and shared leadership – between board and staff.

- The Story of a Nonprofit Newbie or Making the Switch from Corporate to Nonprofit Leadership
  This may seem like a narrow topic, but Garry broadens it to talk about the transformative experience, both personally and professionally, of becoming deeply engaged in a cause you care profoundly about – either as a staff member or a board member.

- Turning Your Board Into A Fundraising Machine (seriously)
  What will it take to engage your board in the work of raising needed dollars for your organization? Garry's advice is smart, funny and actionable.

"Joan is an obsessive champion for the nonprofit sector and for your success as a leader."

A little about Joan

Joan Garry began her career in 1981 as part of the management team that launched MTV. She followed this successful eight-year tenure with another successful run as an executive at Showtime Networks. Then, in 1997 while either having a midlife crisis or avoiding one, Garry was named the executive director of GLAAD, one of the largest gay rights organizations in the U.S.

She is currently Principal of Joan Garry Consulting, a boutique consulting firm that helps nonprofits across a wide variety of sectors to untangle strategic knots enabling them to have a clearer path in pursuit of their missions.

Her blog at www.joangarry.com for board and staff leaders of nonprofits reaches 100,000 unique leaders monthly, from over 150 countries. Her podcast Nonprofits Are Messy is frequently the #1 nonprofit podcast on iTunes. Lastly, she is the founder of The Nonprofit Leadership Lab, a monthly online membership site for board and staff leaders of small nonprofits who can afford neither coaching nor consulting.

Her book, Joan Garry's Guide To Nonprofit Leadership (John Wiley and Sons) was published in early 2017.

Joan lives in NJ with her wife of 34 years. Joan and Eileen were plaintiffs in a 1993 landmark NJ court case granting a lesbian couple a second parent adoption. Their three grown children all legally have two mothers (whether they like it or not).
